

ARMS - NCURA Fellowship Code of Conduct

The purpose of the Code of Conduct is to ensure that the conduct of all Fellows enhances their country's and professional society's reputation for professionalism and integrity. Fellows agree to adhere to this code and to refrain from any activity or behaviour that could adversely affect their country or professional society.

Respect for the Law

- All Fellows will respect the laws of the country and locale in which he or she is being hosted.

Cultural Sensitivity

- Fellows will be culturally sensitive to the local customs of the inhabitants of their host country, paying close attention to those of personal behaviour. Fellows will respect and abide by the laws and customs of local cultural property.

Appropriate Personal Behaviour

- Fellows will not engage in behaviour at any time which will impede their ability to present at or attend the agreed upon programs at their host institution. Fellows' personal conduct will not have a negative impact on the reputation of their country or professional society.

Respect for Others and Tolerance of their Opinions

- Fellows will respect the cultural background of colleagues at their host institution. They will be tolerant and will refrain from harassment of any individual based on their sex, marital status, ethnicity, age, sexual orientation, disability, political affiliation or religious beliefs.

I agree to follow the Code of Conduct while I am serving as an ARMS Global Fellow.

Signature and date