Nomination Guide for Board Members 2019

NOMINATIONS CLOSE – 5.00 PM AEST, 30 July 2019 to arms.adminofficer@flinders.edu.au

There are currently eight (8) members of the ARMS Board: four Office-Bearer roles (President, President Elect, Treasurer and Secretary) and four Board Members.

Nominations are now called for the following ARMS Board positions; the terms of the current incumbents expire at the September 2019 AGM:

- Treasurer (x 1 vacancy only)
- General Board Member (x 3 vacancies only)

Description of Roles and Term of Office

Treasurer

The Treasurer is appointed for a two-year term and will not need to seek re-election for the second year of her/his appointment.

The Treasurer has responsibility for:

- Maintaining accurate and current records and an audit trail of all accounts maintained by the Society;
- Financial accountability including planning and budgeting in accordance with the current ARMS Strategic Plan;
- Advising the Board on financial strategy including preparation of financial reports, both current and forecasts, and management of investments;
- Attending and participating in all scheduled ARMS Board meetings and as an ex-officio member of the Governance, Finance and Audit Committee (GFAC);
- Regular liaison with the Finance Officer and coordination of transactional operations;
- Being informed about the Society’s mission, governance structure, and programs;
- Preparation of the Society’s Annual Financial Statement for endorsement by our membership at the AGM; and
- Assisting the Board in carrying out its legal obligations.

Attributes

In deciding to nominate, the candidate must be:

- Experienced in and passionate about the profession of research management and administration;
- Prepared to commit a minimum of four days per month in a voluntary capacity;
- Able to participate in regular GFAC meetings, as required (either face-to-face or teleconferences); and
- Able to participate in quarterly Board face-to-face meetings (typically December, March, June, and September) as well as attend regular teleconferences held throughout the year.
To be successful in the role, the candidate will need to:

- Demonstrate finance experience / experience in a finance role, or is prepared to acquire the skills necessary;
- Strong written and oral communication skills;
- A broad understanding of compliance issues and generally familiar with the legal duties and responsibilities of a Board member; and
- The knowledge and experience needed to provide advice on a wide range of national and international matters pertaining to the profession of research management and administration.

Board Member (3 positions available this election round, 2 year term).

Attributes
The successful candidate is responsible for:

- Actively participating in ARMS Board activities and business;
- Ensuring that the Society’s mission and goals under the ARMS Strategic Plan are being achieved;
- Acting as a Board Liaison of a Society Standing Committee(s), as approved by the President; and
- Assisting the ARMS Board to carry out its legal obligations.

Selection Criteria
To be successful in the role, the candidate will need to demonstrate:

- Strong written and oral communication skills;
- A broad understanding of compliance issues and generally familiar with the legal duties and responsibilities of a Board member; and
- The knowledge and experience needed to provide advice on a wide range of national and international matters pertaining to the profession of research management and administration.
- Must be experienced in and passionate about the profession of research management and administration and prepared to be an ambassador for the Society;
- Ready to commit on average, a minimum of two days per month in a voluntary capacity;
- Able to participate in relevant Standing Committee meetings; and
- Able to participate in quarterly face-to-face Board meetings (typically December, March, June, September) as well as attend regular teleconferences throughout the year.

NOTE: Candidates for each of the above roles are advised to address the required attributes in their biography. The biography will demonstrate:
(a) that the applicant possesses the attributes required for the role and,
(b) how the applicant’s qualification(s) and/or experience will enable them to fulfil the responsibilities of the role for which they are nominating.

Nominations
- Only financial members of the Society are eligible for election as Office-Bearers or Board Members. Existing and past officers may seek re-election;
- Individuals may self-nominate or be nominated by another person;
- A valid nomination consists of:
  o A nomination form that has the signatures of the proposer, seconder, and nominee. The proposer and seconder must also be financial members of the Society;
  o A biography demonstrating (a) that the applicant possesses the attributes required for the role and, (b) how the applicant’s qualification(s) and/or experience will enable them to fulfil the responsibilities of the role for which they are nominating.
Further information about the roles and responsibilities of ARMS Board Members can be obtained from the ARMS COO or refer to descriptors above;

Nominations must be received by the deadline published on the ARMS website and in the e-newsletter, Up In ARMS;

The ARMS Governance, Finance and Audit Committee (GFAC) will follow the “GFAC operating principles and processes for assessing nominations for board positions”. In brief, GFAC will assess all nominations including nominations from Board members that are seeking re-election to ensure that each candidate possesses the attributes to fulfil the requirements of the role for which they are nominating. Please refer to the document to refer to the complete principles and processes;

All nominees must observe the Society’s Code of Conduct before submitting a nomination. If a nominee is successful, she/he will be required to operate within the Society’s Code of Conduct.

If the number of suitable nominations received equals the number of vacancies to be filled, the persons nominated shall be deemed elected;

If insufficient nominations are received to fill all vacancies, further nominations may be called for;

If the number of nominations exceeds the number of vacancies to be filled, a ballot will be held;

The results of the ballot will be ratified at the AGM of the Society in September 2018; and

If a ballot is not necessary, the individual will be notified and the results published in the Society’s e-newsletter and website.

Expense Reimbursement for members of the ARMS Executive Committee

An ARMS Board Member is an unpaid voluntary role.

In accordance with clause 2.2.1 (General Policy) of the Society’s By-laws:

The Society shall reimburse Members of the Board for their expenses in travel and accommodation to attend Meetings of the Board or other meetings approved by the Board. Where costs of attendance at such meeting are supported by the Member’s employing organisation, the Society may, on request of that organisation, reimburse that organisation the costs (expenses) of attending the meeting in accordance with the Travel and Accommodation Guidelines.

However, where a meeting of the Board is aligned with the annual conference, the Board member’s entitlement shall only include: one night’s accommodation, transfer costs to attend the scheduled Board meeting and a complimentary conference registration (refer to By-Law 2.2.2 for conditions). All other costs, including flights to attend the conference, accommodation during the week of the conference and other incidental costs shall be met directly by the Member’s employing organisation. Where a Board member is self-employed, the Board may consider covering these additional costs to be determined on a case by case basis.

In accordance with clause 2.2.2 (Annual Conference Attendance for Board Members) of the Society’s By-Laws:

Board members shall be entitled to one complimentary conference registration when attending the annual conference. Board members will be expected to actively participate in and promote the annual conference, including but not limited to: promoting and supporting the delivery of the Annual General Meeting; supporting the Conference Program Organising Committee with the review of conference abstract; reviewing and recommending poster prize recipients and chairing of conference sessions and other special events. The complimentary registration will not be transferrable to another person.

Board members are also encouraged to support the attendance of staff within their employing organisation to the annual conference.
