- Be prepared to commit and receive support from your organisation to attend regular meetings of the ARMS Board – two in-person meetings annual (full day meetings) and up to 3-4 online meetings (partial days). Meetings are typically scheduled November (online induction meeting for the newly appointed Board), February (in-person/full day), March (online/partial day), September (in-person/full day).
- The President-Elect may also be required to attend quarterly meetings of the Accreditation Council as the President's delegate.
- Must be willing to obtain a relevant policy clearance check before commencing in the role.

Selection Criteria

To be successful in this role, the candidate must:

- Demonstrate highly developed leadership, policy development, communication, and interpersonal skills.
- Experience in managing people and achieving change.
- Must have a broad understanding of compliance as well as a general understanding of the legal duties and responsibilities of a Board member.
- Demonstrated experience in managing areas of major risk in similar organisations/sectors/industries.
- Display high level stakeholder management skills; and
- Ability to provide advice to the ARMS Board on a wide range of national and international matters pertaining to the profession of research management and administration.

GENERAL MEMBER (2-year term) – 2 POSITIONS ONLY.

The General Member is appointed for a two-year term and will not need to seek re-election for the second year of their appointment.

General Member plays a critical role in advancing the work of the Society.

The successful candidate shall be responsible for:

- Actively participating in ARMS Board activities and business.
- Ensuring that the Society's mission and goals under the Society's Strategic Plan are being achieved. Please note that the Strategic Plan will be undergoing a review by the Board of Directors in 2024.
- Acting as a Board Liaison of a Society Standing Committee(s), as approved by the President; and
- Assisting the ARMS Board in carrying out its legal obligations.

Attributes

In deciding to nominate, the candidate must:

- Be a strong advocate for the profession and be prepared to act as an ambassador for the Society.
- Be prepared to commit and receive the support from your organisation to volunteer a minimum one (1) day per month in a voluntary capacity.
- Be prepared to commit and receive support from your organisation to attend regular meetings of the ARMS Board – two in-person meetings annual (full day meetings) and up to 3-4 online meetings (partial days). Meetings are typically scheduled November (online induction meeting for the newly appointed Board), February (in-person/full day), March (online/partial day), September (in-person/full day).
- Be prepared to commit time and receive support from your organisation to attend meetings of an ARMS Standing Committee on a regular basis (these are typically 2-hour meetings conducted up to 4 times per annum); and
- Be willing to obtain a relevant police clearance check before commencing in the role.

SELECTION CRITERIA:

To be successful in the role, the candidate must demonstrate:

- Strong written and oral communication skills; including the ability to communicate and interpret complex financial information.
- The ability to contribute to the financial strategy of the Society. The candidate must also have a broad understanding of compliance issues and generally familiar with the legal duties and responsibilities of a Board member.
- The knowledge and experience needed to provide advice on a wide range of national and international matters pertaining to the profession of research management, finance, and administration.
- Must be willing to obtain a relevant policy clearance check before commencing in the role.

SECRETARY (2-year term) - Please note pursuant to clause 72 2a&b of the Associations Incorporations Reform Act (Vic) 2012, the successful candidate must at least be 18 years of age and is resident in Australia.

Attributes
